

ASEA[®] North America 2024 Conference

Travel guide 19 – 21 September 2024

Whether you're heading to Salt Lake City or are already here, let us help you find the best ways to get around and the best places to wine and dine in this beautiful city in the valley!

Save on travel and be a force for good in the process

When you book through Go & Give, you get a best-price guarantee and help us fulfill our mission to be a force for good. A portion of all sales on the site will be donated to our Advancing Life Foundation—that's good for you and the world at large! Visit asea.goandgive.com to get started today!

Getting downtown from the Salt Lake International Airport

Public transportation

For a Utah-specific experience, you can take the Utah Transit Authority (UTA) TRAX Service. The Airport TRAX station is located on the ground level outside the terminal on the east side. Passengers should exit door 1A and go east. Take the Green Line to Gallivan Plaza Station. Walk west for half a mile to reach the Hilton Salt Lake City Center. One-way fare for the train is $2.50 USD.

Rideshare

Rideshare services are available in SLC, including Uber and Lyft. Download the app on your phone either through the Apple Store or Google Play Store. You must create your own account to use the app.

Limo service

For a more luxurious ride downtown, reach out to Marcus of Alliance Limos.

Phone: (801) 678-4161

What to see

If the views of the mountains aren't enough to leave you in awe, here are some other cool spots to check out around the city!!

City Creek or Gateway - If you're looking to go shopping while here, visit these two shopping centers for your Utah shopping spree.

University of Utah - Got an itch for college? Visit the campus at the top of the hill or simply check out their football stadium.

Ensign Peak - A short but steep hike behind the Capitol Building, Ensign Peak will give you the best view of the city.

Hogle Zoo - You can never get tired of animals, and Hogle Zoo is a modest zoo where you can check out some of your favorites!

Eccles Salt Lake 2002 Olympic Winter Games Museum (Park City) - This state-of-the-art museum brings the 2002 Olympics alive. With the 2034 Winter Olympics coming back to Salt Lake City, relive what made the first Olympics in Utah so special!

We're so excited for you to join us in Salt Lake City! We hope this travel guide helps you have the best experience you can while attending the 2024 North America Conference! Cheers!
