Will there be a "Science behind Redox" session?

Yes! Gain a deeper understanding of redox science and ASEA™ products by attending our additional "Science behind Redox" pre-event session the afternoon of 20 September from 2 – 4:30 pm. Add this session to your agenda for an additional $25 and join us the day before Convention officially starts!

Will there be dinner for Diamond Executives?

Yes. We will have a special dinner for associates who have been paid at Diamond Executive rank or higher five times between 12 March 2022 and 4 August 2023. If an associate advances to Diamond Executive for the first time during these dates, they will be invited to attend this year's Diamond dinner.

Will there be reserved seating for Diamond Executives during the general sessions?

Yes. We will offer reserved seating during general sessions for associates who have been paid at Diamond Executive rank or higher five times between 12 March 2022 and 4 August 2023.

Which languages will be available for translation?

ASEA™ 2023 Global Convention language support is based on registration and attendance numbers. The event will be presented in English and typical language translations have included Spanish, Traditional Chinese, Hungarian, and French. In order to provide translations for a specific language, we require a minimum of 50 attendees registered in that language. Language support for virtual presentations will be the same as in-person support.
